AMERICA – CHANGES ARE BREWING

FINANCIAL, POLITICAL, TECHNOLOGICAL, AND RELIGIOUS

PART I – INTRODUCTION & FINANCIAL

July 2, 2019

Leon E. Good

This scripture in Isaiah was God's message to an apostate Jewish nation – what is His message to America?

Isaiah 5:20-25 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore, as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore, is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

I could have chosen to title this writing: "America - Reaping What Was Sown" – Please process all quotes and thoughts that follow, with this verse as a context: Hosea 8:7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

"As nightfall does not come at once, neither does oppression. In both instances, there's a twilight where everything remains seemingly unchanged, and it is in such twilight that we must be aware of change in the air, however slight, lest we become unwitting victims of the darkness."
--Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas

Is there another modern country like United States where the truth of God's WORD was and is so accessible through technology and the preaching in numerous churches throughout the land? The responsibility of our population is increased in direct proportion to the accessibility and the hearing of that knowledge.

Much of this article will consist of quotations by important persons in history, hopefully giving you a bit different view of who we are as a nation, and a bit different view of our monetary system. I have previously focused most of my writing on the global and national religious deceptions, knowing that the only battle perspective in which I can participate is the spiritual battle. But as I view the convergence taking place at this very moment in history, involving all parts of our existence as defined within the terms Financial, Political, Technological, and Religious, I feel compelled to share additional concerns, formed in my 45 years of research.

Assuming you have read my prior articles, you may already have in hand the definitions for most of the following descriptive terms and phrases:

In the past 175 years, the population of America has been influenced by these practices, movements and philosophies being promoted and taught in our entertainment and news media, churches, corporations, universities, and schools: Evolution, Mormonism, Jehovah's Witnesses, Relativism, Liberation Theology, Social Gospel, Marxism, Socialism, False Historical Narratives, Psychology, Unification Church, Charismaticism, Christian Scientology, Prosperity Gospel, Globalism, Ecumenism, Self- Worship, New Age and New Spirituality Practices, Paganized Musical Revolution, Materialism, Sexual Revolution and Sexual Perversion (LGBTQ), Redefinition of Marriage and Family, Violent and Occult Movies, Pro-Choice, Social Justice, Critical Race Theory, Reparations, Feminism, Occult Martial Arts, Occult Health Practices, Drug and Alcohol Epidemics, Gambling Craze, Sports Craze, and finally, irrational Credit Spending and the resultant Massive Glob of Debt – Public and Private.

The above list does not cover all influences and movements in America, but I hope the above gives you pause to think how our nation has been shaped and molded. I would also make this note: All of the above involves people making choices in regards to beliefs and actions.

I could basically summarize the purpose of this writing with this paragraph: Whether or not you have the awareness and understanding of the cultural, terminal situation the USA is facing in so many critical areas, really doesn't change the truth and reality of what has happened, nor what is about to happen. If God would give us a "medical" report on America as a patient, including the financial, political, technological, and spiritual elements, I propose that America would be consigned to the ICU, and the average American most likely would be more seriously concerned for their personal and their country's future. The Christian who doesn't have this sense of urgency and a view of this multifaceted battle, is hampered in defeating the spiritual deception that is destroying their churches and increasing their loss of their children to the worldly system.

> "Establishing and maintaining a strong fundamentalist stand in this present society is very wearing emotionally, physically, and spiritually. One must constantly be on the alert and is consigned to be forever in a battle. This of course is perfectly in order with what Scripture teaches. Against the host of hell we are to "wrestle" and we are to "stand" (Eph. 6:11-14). We have responded to the bugle that never blows retreat. We have sworn eternal enmity against the forces of unrighteousness; thus there is no discharge from the war in which we are engaged. The battle is tough. It becomes particularly distasteful when one must oppose brethren in the Lord. Many cannot take the pressure. It is better, they think, to have a less confining position so that one will not have quite as many people against which to contend. The New Evangelical position seems to offer some relief from certain aspects of conflict. It thus becomes a very tempting position to consider."
> - Ernest D. Pickering, The Tragedy of Compromise, pg 156

I have discovered that the average American, Christian or non-Christian, Educated or non-Educated, finds it almost impossible to accept the reality that they have literally been intellectually scammed regarding multiple issues by multiple, well-coordinated, deceptive philosophical missiles and depth charges. If some of you saw the real picture and facts behind WWI and WWII, you would break into tears, and find it difficult to control your anger!

Because I am an old man, I have viewed many changes in this world, of which I am an infinitesimally small, invisible dot on a huge canvas representing all human experiences and expressions. And if that work of "art" represented only the United States of America, I still would be an invisible dot, but as a dot I have noticed a continuing change in the composition of the paints and artists creating that picture. Let me reassure you, I recognize God's sovereignty in all of this devolution into chaos, and his perfect knowledge regarding all these changes in our world.

As many of my readers and friends already know, my sincere goal, is to help Christians see the BIG PICTURE, which makes them a more effective soldier for the Truth.

I have observed that many sincere Christians, including most pastors, who are Biblically sound in their beliefs and doctrines, and can effectively share and preach the Gospel, and even have discernment around most spiritual issues, tend to have serious blind spots as it has to do with the multifaceted, evil composition of many world organizations that would fall under the definition of one or all of the descriptive terms in the sub-title above. This blindness hinders their effectiveness and dampens the urgency of discernment. There is direct networking between the religious change agents, and key individuals involved in the "Global Dream" of governance.

Now let us consider these verses from scripture:

Matthew 4:8–10 (NASB95) Again, the devil *took Him to a very high mountain and *showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory; and he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me." Then Jesus *said to him, "Go, Satan! For it is written, 'YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.'"

I John 5:19 NASB We know that we are of God, and that the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

Revelation 11:15 KJV And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

I would submit to you, that since Christ possessed all knowledge concerning the past, present, and future, and perfectly understood what his adversary was offering, that the kingdoms presented were not only those contemporary to the time of this temptation, but included all future kingdoms and nations. If so, United States of America would have been in that picture. Most patriotic Christians have a very difficult time digesting the possibility and the reality that America was and is part of Lucifer's world kingdoms paradigm.

Let me propose this for your consideration: Just as Roman Catholicism was a "deep fake" version of Christianity, the same wicked enemy designed a nation as a "deep fake" version of a "Christian" nation. My friend in Germany, Dr. Martin Erdmann, has called this an example of a civil religion, which government "acts" religiously, including the use of Biblical sounding terminology (i.e. In God We Trust on our money), only for pragmatic and manipulative purposes.

Here is a sample representation of the how our founding fathers, almost all of whom were Masonic and/or Deists, including Washington, may have viewed our nation's origin:

"This Jeffersonian democracy rested on the denial of the sovereignty of God for Jeffersonians, as Boorstin has observed: "put God at the service of their earthly American task." A creator, God had abdicated his throne to his creation, and his role was to be one of cooperating with men in the realization of the American Dream. In this Jeffersonian scheme of things, sovereignty was now in the hands of man, and he was to use it as he saw fit, being guided by the dictates of right reason. The doctrines of the evangelicals of original sin, total depravity, atonement through Jesus Christ alone, and regeneration were replaced by new emphases on the inherent goodness of man, and his perfectibility through education. Salvation, for both the individual and the race, would be through education rather than regeneration and conversion."

These negations of Christianity were the inspiration for Jefferson's social and political thought. … That the Jeffersonian democracy was founded on Christian principles and simply reflects the social implications of the Gospels is one of the most-deadly, and at the same time one of the most persistent errors of contemporary America. The reference to God in the Declaration of Independence, and the apparent submission to his will, should not blind us to the tragic misuse of biblical ideas to convey Deistic principles for the realization of a society which would be essentially humanistic and anti-supernaturalistic in character. Pgs. 41-42, C Gregg Singer, A theological interpretation of American history (Nutley, NJ: The Craig Press, 1964)

The most prevalent spiritual problem in American churches is syncretism, mixing two totally incompatible religions – biblical Christianity and Jeffersonian democracy ("republicanism") – as if they were complimentary. In reality, it is a deadly concoction, and it proved to be deadly a long time ago, even to itself. There is no American constitutional Republic anymore. It has been thoroughly destroyed, as Garet Garrett so clearly explained in his essay "The Revolution Was". Dr. Martin Erdmann

I personally have concluded this version of civil religion was created in order to maximize the resources of Christians living in America, which included expected, faithful payment of taxes, loyal military participation in international bank-rolled wars in the name of liberty and democracy, serving their goal of global dominionism, and a work ethic that could only be achieved by promoting Christian ethics. Additionally, based on considerable research, is that Lucifer probably knew that no nation would achieve our status in power and influence, which he needed for the goals of Mystery Babylon, without the support of the simple majority of people who called themselves Christians, and in the least, practiced Christian ethics and morals. Now we are viewing a great change - the movement of people in America identified as "Christian", moving quickly into the (Old) New Age and Occult doctrines and worship practices. This would all seem to serve his purposes well, as he prepares to introduce the false Messiah, who will claim to be the real Christ, comfortably identifying with the false, global, ecumenical "Christian" church.

As a context for the above, please be reminded of my prior writing – the corporate, political, financial, and religious machine in America is grievously aligned with the Occult, Masonic, Jesuitical system of Mystery Babylon. If you want additional explanation and proof of this, please email a request for additional information.

> "We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false"
> William J. Casey, former CIA Dir.

Before you reject the above, I would remind you again, that it certainly seems God has allowed this to transpire, in order for prophetical scriptures to be fulfilled in every detail, including Israel's final redemption.

God has also used American Christians as a faithful missionary force throughout the world, which represents the Church of Jesus Christ. These last days will be spiritually testing for mankind. A verse I have quoted often: Matthew 24:24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

> "If you give a man the correct information for seven years, he may believe the incorrect information on the first day of the eighth year when it is necessary, from your point of view, that he should do so. Your first job is to build the credibility and the authenticity of your propaganda, and persuade the enemy to trust you although you are his enemy."
> -- A Psychological Warfare Casebook Operations Research Office Johns Hopkins University Baltimore (1958)

In considering the non-stop degradation of the roles of American government in recent years, by almost all news networks, and those elected officials who defy the supposed "Christian" ethics and morals on which this "republic" was "supposedly" founded, one has to conclude that the agreed upon agenda is the destruction of our freedoms. Is this agenda preparing the American public for a new form of government, one I choose to describe as a global dictatorship?

> "Our job is to give people not what they want, but what we decide they ought to have."
> -- Richard Salent, Former President CBS News.

For the sake of context, for this writing, I want to show some financial connections to the operations of Mystery Babylon. Let us take a short peek at the financial history of the Federal Reserve and International Banking:

I could write a treatise of sorts on the sins of the Federal Reserve, and how they have manipulated us into wars for many reasons, but it always included the specific purpose of bankrupting us as a nation. But not just us, but other nations as well. International bankers have almost every nation (including Communist nations) in debt to their system. The national debtor is always servant to the international lender.

If you have never heard Dr. Stuart Crane explain the fraudulent Federal Reserve in the lecture presented in 1971 titled "Wheat Receipts", I invite you to listen to the 48-minute lecture Here.

"I care not what puppet is placed on the throne of England to rule the Empire, on which the sun never sets. The man that controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire. And I control the money supply."
--Baron Nathan Mayer de Rothschild (1777-1836)

The Federal Reserve is not a U.S. government agency. It was created by international bankers to facilitate their financial control of the issue of money in the U.S. and the world. An example is that all oil sales in the world must be sold and bought in dollars. This was one of the reasons for getting rid of Saddam Hussein in Iraq – he started selling oil, ignoring that requirement.

But even preceding the Federal Reserve, the European Banking system was already attempting to gain control of our country – see the quote by President Abraham Lincoln just below:

Abraham Lincoln faced a double-edged sword – the Jesuits and he also sensed he was destined to be assassinated because of his refusal to indebt the Northern States to the Rothschild Bank in England. Meanwhile the Rothschild Bank in Paris was funding the Southern States' rebellion. But there was also an involvement of a religious nature, which involved the Vatican, who was also indebted to the Rothschilds – see these quotes by President Abraham Lincoln: (isn't it interesting that these quotes were never in any history books where I attended school)

"I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me, and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country." The money powers prey upon the nation in times of peace and conspire against it in times of adversity. It is more despotic than a monarchy, more insolent than autocracy, and more selfish than bureaucracy. It denounces as public enemies, all who question it's methods or throw light upon it's crimes. I have two great enemies, the Southern Army in front of me and the Bankers in the rear. Of the two, the one at my rear is my greatest foe... corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money powers of the country will endeavor to prolong it's reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until the wealth is aggregated in the hands of a few, and the Republic is destroyed.
-- Abraham Lincoln – in a letter written to William Elkin in 1863.

"Unfortunately, I feel more and more, every day, that it is not against the Americans of the South, alone, I am fighting, it is more against the Pope of Rome, his perfidious Jesuits and their blind and blood-thirsty slaves, than against the real American Protestants, that we have to defend ourselves. Here is the real danger of our position. So long as they will hope to conquer the North, they will spare me; but the day we will rout their armies (and that day will surely come, with the help of God), take their cities, and force them to submit, then, it is my impression that the Jesuits, who are the principal rulers of the South, will do what they have almost invariably done in the past. The dagger, or the pistol of one of their adepts, will do what the strong hands of the warriors could not achieve. This civil war seems to be nothing but a political affair to those who do not see, as I do, the secret springs of that terrible drama. But it is more a religious than a civil war. It is Rome who wants to rule and degrade the North, as she has ruled and degraded the South, from the very day of its discovery. There are only very few of the Southern leaders who are not more or less under the influence of the Jesuits, through their wives, family relations, and their friends. Several members of the family of Jeff Davis belong to the Church of Rome. Even the Protestant ministers are under the influence of the Jesuits without suspecting it. To keep her ascendancy in the North, as she does in the South, Rome is doing here what she has done in Mexico, and in all the South American Republics; she is paralyzing, by a civil war, the arms of the soldiers of Liberty. She divides our nation, in order to weaken, subdue and rule it. President Abraham Lincoln – Pg. 410, Fifty Years in the Church of Rome – Charles Chiniquy

…"There is a fact which is too much ignored by the American people, and with which I am acquainted only since I became President; it is that the best, the leading families of the South have received their education in great part, if not in whole, from the Jesuits and the nuns. Hence those degrading principles of slavery, pride, cruelty, which are as a second nature among so many of those people. Hence that strange want of fair play, humanity; that implacable hatred against the ideas of equality and liberty as we find them in the Gospel of Christ. You do not ignore that the first settlers of Louisiana, Florida, New Mexico, Texas, South California and Missouri were Roman Catholics, and that their first teachers were Jesuits. It is true that those states have been conquered or bought by us since. But Rome had put the deadly virus of her antisocial and anti-Christian maxims into the veins of the people before they became American citizens. Unfortunately, the Jesuits and the nuns have in great part remained the teachers of those people since. They have continued in a silent, but most efficacious way, to spread their hatred against our institutions, our laws, our schools, our rights and our liberties in such a way that this terrible conflict became unavoidable between the North and the South. As I told you before, it is to Popery that we owe this terrible civil war." President Abraham Lincoln – Pg. 420, Fifty Years in the Church of Rome – Charles Chiniquy

"Gentlemen [referring to the U.S. Wall Street led banking establishment who were behind renewing the Second Bank of the United States Charter]. I have had men watching you for a long time and I am convinced that you have used the funds of the bank to speculate in the breadstuffs of the country. When you won, you divided the profits amongst you and when you lost, you charged it to the bank. You tell me that if I take the deposits from the bank and annul its charter, I shall ruin ten thousand families. That may be true, gentlemen, but that is your sin! Should I let you go

"History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling money and its issuance."

– President James Madison, primary architect and author of the U.S. Constitution

"The invisible Money Power is working to control and enslave mankind. It financed Communism, Fascism, Marxism, Zionism, Socialism. All of these are directed to making the United States a member of a World Government." –American Mercury Magazine, December 1957, p. 92 on, you will ruin fifty thousand families, and that would be my sin! You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the eternal God, I will rout you out. If only people understood the rank injustice of our banking and money system, there would be a revolution before morning*."* –President Andrew Jackson, circa 1832

"The Federal Reserve has the power to create money. This money is fiction, created out of nothing. This can be money in the form of created credit through the discount window at which other banks borrow at the discount rate of interest or it can be notes printed by the [U.S.] Treasury and sold to the Federal Reserve and paid for by Federal Reserve created funds. In brief, this private group of bankers has a money machine monopoly. This monopoly is uncontrolled by anyone and is guaranteed profit. Further, the monopoly doesn't have to answer questions or produce books or file annual statements. It is an unrestricted money monopoly" –Professor Antony C. Sutton, The Federal Reserve Conspiracy, 1995, p. 5

In this discussion of finance, I would be remiss if I did not also reference the motivation for war by those who bankroll and manufacture the weapons of war. It is a most profitable business, along with those who supply the petrol that is needed for the fight. The requirement for funds is so great, that nations must borrow from the International Bankers. In the Vietnam war, both the North and South Vietnamese forces received petrol from a Standard Oil facility in Haiphong in North Vietnam, which "miraculously" was never bombed by our forces.

"How pale is the art of sorcerers, witches, and conjurors when compared with that of the government's Treasury Department!" –Outspoken 20th century Political Economist Ludwig von Mises

"The hand that gives is above the hand that takes. Money has no Motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency: their sole object is gain." –French Emperor Napoleon before his defeat at Waterloo in 1815

"The real menace of our republic is this invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy length over city, state and nation. Like the octopus of real life, it operates under cover of a self-created screen...At the head of this octopus are the Rockefeller Standard Oil interests and a small group of powerful banking houses generally referred to as international bankers. The little coterie of powerful international bankers virtually run the United States government for their own selfish purposes. They practically control both political parties."
--John F. Hylan, 1922, then mayor of New York City

"Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the U.S., in the field of commerce and manufacturing, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it." –Woodrow Wilson, in The New Freedom (1913), p. 13-14

"The powers of financial capitalism had another far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole… This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences." –Dr. Carroll Quigley, Tragedy and Hope, 1966, p. 324

As a context for the following, remember, according to Dr. Stuart Crane, I informed you in previous writing that the Communist movement was formerly the Palladian Rite of Freemasonry. Viewing below just one example of our fighting Communism, isn't it ironic and infuriating that almost all of the monopolistic Capitalists and major politicians in our democracy are also Freemasons?

To reinforce that connection, please note that the Masonic Obelisks – (the Baal phallic symbol) - are discovered in almost every nation around the world – Communist, Capitalist, Islamic, and Catholic, including the Vatican. They also are in most cemeteries around the world.

To better understand the price our nation paid in just one war against communism, here is an example for your review from the No.1 dedicated website about the Vietnam War:

How Much Did The Vietnam War Cost?

Alan Rohn, January 22, 2014 - Updated on April 5, 2016

Any war is costly. Lasted for almost thirty years, including 8 years of the United States' direct intervention from 1965 to 1973, the Vietnam War was considered the most expensive war in Cold War era. The price that the United States had to pay for the war in Vietnam was not limited in the battlefield but also in various aspects of the nation from human lives to political problems.

Human Cost

Among all the wars the United States had fought, Vietnam War is ranked 4th in casualties just below the Civil War and the two World Wars. Out of 2,594,000 personnel who served in Vietnam, there were 58,220 Americans dead, 153,303 wounded and 1,643 missing. More than 23,214 soldiers suffered one hundred percent disabled. Even when it already ended, the war continued to cost many American lives. It's estimated that 70,000 to 300,000 Vietnam Veterans committed suicide and around 700,000 veterans suffered psychological trauma.

Economic Cost

The Department of Defense (DOD) reports that the United States spent about $168 billion (worth around $950 billion in 2011 dollars) in the entire war including $111 billion on military operations (1965 – 1972) and $28.5 billion on economic and military aid to Saigon regime (1953 – 1975). At that rate, the United States spent approximately $168,000 for an "enemy" killed.

However, $168 billion was only the direct cost. According to Indochina Newsletter of Asia Resource Center, the United States spent from $350 billion to $900 billion in total including veterans' benefits and interest. During the Vietnam war, in order to meet its required war efforts, factories in the U.S. which used to produce consumer goods were now converted to produce military equipment. This change caused a plunge in shopping rates, thus hurting the economy. Military fund spent overseas also led to budget deficits which caused a weaker dollar, galloping inflation and increasing interest rates. Owing to the Vietnam War, American economy was brought down from its growth in early 1960s to an economic crisis in 1970s.

Political and Social Cost

The United States paid a high political cost for the Vietnam War. Large-scale anti-war movements around the country caused a great rift within American society. Likewise, the leak of Pentagon Papers and the Watergate scandal critically damaged the government credibility. Americans people now kept a deep suspicion and distrust of their government.

Iraq: Another war that increased our indebtedness to the Federal Reserve and International Bankers:

Cost of Iraq War, Its Timeline, and the Economic Impact

By Kimberly Amadeo

Updated June 25, 2019

The Iraq War was a military conflict that lasted seven years, from 2003 to 2011, and cost $1.06 trillion. President George W. Bush launched the war to eliminate the threat from Iraq's Sunni leader, Saddam Hussein, who he believed was developing weapons of mass destruction. The Iraq War was part of the War on Terror, and was the U.S. response to the 9/11 terrorist attacks by al-Qaida.

The war added more than $1 trillion to the U.S. debt, which included increases to the Department of Defense (DoD) and the Veterans Administration (VA) base budgets.

The DoD base budget grew by $193 billion during the Iraq War; and the VA budget expanded by $47.7 billion. However, some of those increases were attributable to the War in Afghanistan.

In addition, the debt amount included the $819.7 billion in Overseas Contingency Operations funds specifically dedicated to the Iraq War. That's more than the $738 billion in inflation-adjusted dollars spent on the Vietnam War, and second only to the $4.1 trillion in inflation-adjusted dollars spent during World War II. The U.S. military budget includes both the base budget, subject to sequestration, and extra funds appropriated to overseas wars.

"When we take actions, they are not reversible by any other body of government." –Vice Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, Alan Blinder, New York Times, September 26, 1994

"Since the days of Meyer Amschel Rothschild, international banking and the Masonic oligarchy have been inseparable, cooperating in their ever expanding financial control of nations."
–John Daniel, Scarlet and the Beast, Volume II, 1995, p. 56

"It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning. The one aim of these financiers is world control by the creation of inextinguishable debt." –American Automobile genius Henry Ford

"[The] abandonment of the gold standard made it possible for the welfare statists to use the banking system as a means to an unlimited expansion of credit.... In the absence of the gold standard, there is no way to protect savings from confiscation through inflation. There is no safe store of value. If there were, the government would have to make its holdings illegal, as was done in the case of gold.... The financial policy of the welfare state requires that there be no way for the owners of wealth to protect themselves.... [This] is the shabby secret of the welfare statist's tirades against gold. Deficit spending is simply a scheme for the 'hidden' confiscation of wealth. Gold stands in the way of this insidious process. It stands as a protector of property rights." –soon-to-be Federal Reserve President Alan Greenspan in an article he wrote in 1966.

"Operating in great obscurity in Basel, Switzerland, the Bank of International Settlements (BIS) wields even greater power than the Federal Reserve as it is considered the central banks' central bank. The BIS, operating on a global level, coordinates with the local central bank in each country, the material changes in domestic law necessary to bring the world monetary system into harmony. Over the years it has, like the Federal Reserve, amassed greater and greater control over more aspects of the global monetary system." –Ted Flynn, Hope of the Wicked, 2000, p. 177

"Most Americans have no real understanding of the operations of the international moneylenders. The bankers want it that way. We recognize in a hazy sort of way that the Rothschilds and the Warburgs of Europe and the houses of J.P. Morgan, Kuhn, Loeb and Company, Schiff, Lehman and Rockefeller possess and control vast wealth. How they acquire this vast financial power and employ it is a mystery to most of us. International bankers make money by extending credit to governments. The greater the debt of the political state, the larger the returned investment to the lenders. The national banks of Europe are actually owned and controlled by private interests ... the accounts of the Federal Reserve have never been audited. It operates outside the control of Congress and ... manipulates the credit of the United States" –U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater (Republican–Arizona); quoted in Trillion Dollar Conspiracy, Jim Marrs, 2010, p. 56

"Our financial system [now] is a false one and a huge burden on the people … This Federal Reserve Act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President (Woodrow Wilson) signs this bill the invisible government by the Monetary Power will be legalized. The people may not know it immediately but the day of reckoning is only a few years removed…. The worst legislative crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking bill. The [Congressional] caucus and the [Democratic] party bosses have again operated and prevented the people from getting the benefit of their own government."
–The Right Honorable Congressman Charles A. Lindbergh, Senior, on December 23, 1913.

"From the days of Spartacus—Weishaupt, to those of Karl Marx, to those of Trotsky, Belacoon, Rosa Luxenberg and Ema Goldman, this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development and envious malevolence, and impossible equality has been steadily growing. This conspiracy played a definite recognizable role in the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the nineteenth century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become the undisputed masters of that enormous movement." –Winston Churchill, quoted in London's Sunday Illustrated Herald appearing February 8th, 1922

"I believe that if the people of this nation fully understood what Congress has done to them over the last 49 years, they would move on Washington; they would not wait for an election.... It adds up to a preconceived plan to destroy the economic and social independence of the United States!"
George W. Malone, U.S. Senator (Nevada), speaking before Congress, 1957

"We have, in this country, one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board. This evil institution has impoverished the people of the United States and has practically bankrupted our government. It has done this through the corrupt practices of the moneyed vultures who control it." –Outspoken Fed critic Congressman Louis T. McFadden in 1932; Chairman of the Congressional House Committee on Banking and Currency from 1920 to 1931.

"The Federal Reserve represents the most massive fraud in the history of the world." –Dr. Hal Lindsey, The Hal Lindsey Report, May 4, 2012

It is estimated that the total amount of money paid in debt interest to the Central Banks of the world is approximately 5 trillion dollars per year - Anthony Migchels; 4 January 2012

"Let's step back for a moment and ask the obvious question: who then exactly owns the Federal Reserve Corporation? Christian researcher Ted Flynn in his book, Hope for the Wicked, gives an eye-opening answer:
- "...This has been one of the best-kept secrets on the 20th century, because the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 provided that the names of the owner banks must remain secret. However, R.E. McMaster, publisher of the newsletter The Reaper, asked his Swiss and Saudi Arabian contacts which banks hold controlling stock in the Federal Reserve System. The answer:

- Rothschild Banks of London and Berlin
- Lazard Brothers Bank of Paris
- Israel Moses Seif Banks of Italy
- Warburg Bank of Hamburg and Amsterdam
- Lehman Brothers Bank of New York
- Kuhn, Loeb Bank of New York
- Chase Manhattan Bank of New York [Rockefeller]
- Goldman, Sachs Bank of New York" –Hope for the Wicked, 2000, p. 224

Moving forward in time, in the 1970s and 80s, Congressman Larry P. McDonald spearheaded efforts to expose the hidden holdings and intentions of the international money interests. His courageous efforts were terminated on August 31, 1983, when we was killed on Korean Airlines flight 007 that was 'accidently' shot down in Soviet Airspace after the airliner went off course. In the 1990s we had Senators John Heinz and John Tower. Both had served on the powerful Senate Banking and Finance Committee, and both were outspoken critics of the Federal Reserve and the Eastern Establishment with its ties to overt secret societies (CFR; Trilateral Commission, Bilderbergers). On April 4, 1991, Senator John Heinz was killed in a plane crash near Philadelphia. No kidding, on the very next day, Senator John Tower was also killed in a plane crash (source: Jeff Rense; website).

"…These banking dynasties had learned that all governments—whether they be totalitarian or democratic—must borrow money in times of emergency, and that by providing such funds from their own private resources (with strings attached) they could bring both kings and democratic leaders under their control… Yes, there is a conspiracy. The international bankers have set about to establish a one-world government and a new one-world monetary system." –Christian researcher Dr. J.R. Church in his book, Guardians of the Grail 1989, p. 192-193

"But in actuality the plan and its strategies develop more specifically with respect to what needs to be controlled by the Money Power. Protégé of the powerful Rockefeller banking interests and thoroughly traitorous U.S. Secretary of State, Freemason, well-known Bilderberger, Trilateral Commission member, and Director with the Council on Foreign Relations, Henry Kissinger in the 1970s enlarges on the three central tenants of the plan:
- "If you control the oil, you control entire nations; if you control the food, you control the people; if you control the money, you control the entire world." Understanding the Corrupt and Evil World of Central Banking and its Connection to the Encroaching and Enveloping New World Order Gregory Richford, 3rd Edition, December 2013

Now let us take a quick trip to view our present financial situation as a nation:

As you can see to the right, our financial situation as a nation is unrecoverable. (Click on title Federal Debt Clock to go online)

Federal Debt Clock

Today the Federal Debt is about $22,025,916,805,261.83.

The amount is the gross outstanding debt issued by the United States Department of the Treasury since 1790 and reported here.

But, it doesn't include state and local debt.

And, it doesn't include so-called "agency debt."

And, it doesn't include the so-called unfunded liabilities of entitlement programs like Social Security and Medicare.

Federal Debt per person is about $67,502.

The Steadily Approaching Financial Train Wreck of the United States
• The process of realizing the central bank oriented New World Order involves the controlled demolition, the "creative destruction," of the financial and economic powers of the nation states. And that includes implicitly the United States. The Masonic World Revolution Movement mentions this specifically. It is not a single action or event that will usher in this tyrannical order. It is a steady, incremental, intentional and painstaking process of engineered oblivion. - "Destroying the dollar and ushering in a new globalist economic regime is a long-term process." –Kurt Nimmo, New Fed Boss, Same Train Wreck Policies, Infowars Magazine, November 2013, p. 42

In Conclusion: We as Christians must be careful to place God's Kingdom, His Word, and His Mission above everything and anything that misdirects our energies, resources, loyalty, and worship. Additionally, don't allow the enemy to redefine philosophically what is God's Kingdom, His Word, and His Mission.

The truth of the following verse is representative of Lucifer's effort to attract humans into his leadership program and kingdom, and for the ultimate control of the world's populace, as spoken of in Revelation: 1 Timothy 6:10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

> "Christianity was born for endurance; it is not an exotic, but a hardy plant, braced by the keen wind; not languid, nor childish nor cowardly. It walks with strong step and erect frame; it is kindly, but firm; it is gentle, but honest; it is calm, but not facile; decided, but not churlish. It does not fear to speak the stern word of condemnation against error, nor to raise its voice against surrounding evils, knowing that it is not of this world." — Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

'As the good man said to his boy, "My boy, pay as you go." "Suppose I cannot pay, father." "Then, don't go;" so would I say to you, examine your life as you go. If you dare not examine an action, or look at it, then do not do it.' Charles Spurgeon

2 Peter 1:4-10 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:
