AMERICA – CHANGES ARE BREWING

FINANCIAL, POLITICAL, TECHNOLOGICAL, AND RELIGIOUS

PART 2A – POLITICAL INTRIGUE

July 12, 2019

Leon E. Good

In writing this article series, it is not my intention to give a detailed history of all the political intrigue that has occurred, even in the last 60 years in America and the world. We could recall the assassination of President John Kennedy, the Watergate crisis, and other serious political intrigues that have occurred. The present happenings on the American and International political scene are not absent of wickedness and intrigue. It is more my goal to view the essence of our world's political systems, some of the major political personalities, their associations with the occult, Jesuits, and Freemasonry. We will also attempt to show how the two-party system in our land, and the tensions created between them, are used to divert the attention of voters away from the powerful elite who have control of both parties. I also wanted to offer this side note, the fact that Cuba's Fidel Castro was a trained Jesuit, who created one of the scariest times for Americans during the cold war, when a nuclear war with the Soviet Union seemed more imminent than any other time in my life. This had a great and considerable effect on our political scene. There was an arms buildup, and the debt grew as politicians played the pretended game of protecting the homeland, and patriotic fervor among voters reached a fever pitch. They didn't tell the voters that American bankers on Wall Street,

> "Castro was obviously fully working for the Jesuits when he joined the Christian Democrat party as a young lawyer. Not only that: by the time of the Cuban revolution in 1958-59, the Jesuits in Latin America were going fully Marxist-Leninist in ideology, as both Avro Manhattan and a former Jesuit priest, Malachi Martin, will document." www.puritans.net

> What makes Incrementalism troublesome to us today is that we are seeing it on so many fronts. The devil has been on such a lengthy winning streak, we've lost sight of how wicked the world has become. Most people don't even realize how far we have drifted from the truth.
> …It is very unlikely that we are going to see any change in the direction of incrementalism. Because we've been on this path for so long, the natural onset of reprobate thinking makes the chance of any U-turn a remote possibility. In the face of this madness, believers need to abide in God's truth and wait patiently for the rapture. Rapture Ready.com

"The drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a one-world government combining super-capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control.... Do I mean conspiracy? Yes, I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent."
--Larry P. McDonald, US Congressman, 1976, killed in the Korean Airlines 747 that was shot down by the Soviets with the approval of the Vatican, actually funded the creation of the Marxist Revolution in Russia. It brought into focus the phony standoff between Capitalism and Communism. There primary goal was to bankrupt us, and secondly to bring fear into the hearts of all citizens, because that is when they are the most politically malleable. The happening on Sept 11, 2001 is an additional illustration of mind manipulation, but that is another story. It is a process of using incrementalism and fear, where to some extent we become accustomed to being fearful, which leads to a gradual acceptance of increased violence, and promotes this philosophy, as it was in Noah's time: Eat, Drink, and be Merry, for tomorrow we die. Matthew 24:38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark. Drinking alcohol and injecting, smoking drugs, and suicide has become an escapism from the hopelessness so many people experience. Why I have shared these facts will hopefully become more clear to you later in this article series.

"In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, you can bet it was planned that way." --Franklin D. Roosevelt

Later in this series we will review more carefully the political system which we have considered as democracy in action. Some of you may ask why is that of any importance? As I mentioned in Part I of this series, there is a convergence taking place which is a necessity before the Anti-Christ can enter the scene. The convergence of all the major systems is everywhere if you are alert enough to notice. Financial, Corporate, Educational, Technological, Political, and the Religious activities, are all pointing to a soon climax of prophesied happenings in scripture. Please note, I am not setting any dates. Your denial of this convergence does not change at all the factual evidence that is available to anyone who cares. Why should you care? See Luke 21:28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. If you aren't seeing these things come to pass, you won't look up, you won't lift up your heads, and you won't recognize that your redemption is drawing near. The closer we seem to be to the Bridegroom's arrival for His Bride, the less the Church is anticipating the wedding.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

There is strong historical evidence from Masonic writings that wars have been, and will be used to condition the population on the earth for the eventual appearance of their miracle man of peace, as spoken by the prophet Daniel:

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. Daniel 8:23-25

"But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived" (2 Timothy 3:13).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron" (1 Timothy 4:1-2).

Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Peter 1:20-21

I am just a bit amazed how blind some Christians are to the progress that the enemy is achieving in the preparation for that day when the man of sin will appear, under the cover of peace.

Psalm 2:1-4 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

Referencing a portion of scripture, Psa. 2:1-4, I have pointed you to previously, please note the classification of those who rage in rebellion against the Lord – they are classified as heathen. Please note the agenda of those political, heathen (kings and rulers) leaders of the earth who are plotting or conspiring. It is a rebellion against God and His Anointed one, Jesus Christ! Their agenda and conspiracy promoting a total rebellion against God the Creator and His Son, in God's eyes, is totally preposterous. One of the grandest deception into todays' world, hidden in plain sight, is the hidden occult connections of kings, presidents, and politicians at almost all levels of government, and including many who profess(ed) to be supporting the "Christian" right. Most American Christians, if asked to provide a definition of the word heathen, in most cases would not include leaders in the sophisticated, western cultures, and especially American politicians, especially on the American right. It is my hope, that this article series will enable you to view more clearly the hidden identity of some of our sophisticated, heathen politicians and leaders.

"The high office of President has been used to foment a plot to destroy the American's freedom, and before I leave office I must inform the citizen of his plight." --John F. Kennedy, at Columbia University, 10 days before his assassination

The reader should also note that politics are employed in almost every corporate and government setting. I have even noticed and experienced the occasional operation and application of unscriptural political intrigue in the churches I have attended.

Before we discuss politics of America in more detail, I feel there is the necessity to define some of the processes and the international organizations which are destroying the traditional, political fabric of our land.

A VIEW OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL INTRIGUE

LEAGUE OF NATIONS:

In researching history, immediately after the Napoleonic Wars, you will find the first effort by the "Money Brokers" to establish the League of Nations was in 1815 at the Congress of Vienna, but the Czar of Russia stood in the way. It is stated that Nathan Rothschild was so enraged, he vowed that someday his descendants would destroy the Czar and his family.

That did happen in 1917, via Communism, thereby removing one significant roadblock to their New World Order agenda.

Also, in 1913, the nefarious "Federal Reserve Bank" was established, and the control of our monetary exchange systems was completely surrendered to the European "Money Barons" as I wrote about in Part I of this series.

When the second attempt to establish the League of Nations failed by 1920, after WWI, the blocking to this association being effectively established, was the Congress of United States. Observe this quote:

"But there was one man in the Senate in 1918 who saw through that scheme just as the Russian Czar did in 1814. He was a man of great political stature; almost as great as that of Teddy Roosevelt and fully as astute. He was highly respected and trusted by all members of both houses of Congress and by the American people. The name of that great and patriotic American was Henry Cabot Lodge." Myron Fagan – Lecture in 1967

But the promoters of the New World Order did not accept defeat – they kept plodding on in their tireless effort to destroy nationalism and religious dogma, which eventually produced the United Nations, located on our soil, in NY., NY.

The next effort appealed to the liberal, denominational, religious leadership in America, to assist in this Utopian dream of global government. Since they already had been infected with liberal theology, the conversion to globalism was an easy transition. The following is but a feeble attempt to summarize and provide an overview:

Dr. Martin Erdmann's book, ECUMENICAL QUEST FOR A WORLD FEDERATION – The Churches' Contribution to Marshall Public Support for World Order and Peace, 1919-1945

Dr. Meic Pearse

London School of Theology, an Associated Institution of Brunel University London

The twentieth century has been the age of ever expanding technocracy, a feature which neither that century's passing nor the shift from a modernist paradigm to postmodernity has diminished. Rather, the drift towards rule by technocrats, allegedly impartial souls, undriven by dogma and supposedly free of the partisan concerns that motivate the rest of us, has intensified. Neither has religious life, avowedly the realm of the spirit and private communion with God, been free of this propensity. Instead, the twentieth century witnessed the rise of the ecumenical movement, an attempt to unify the disparate churches on a global basis – a sort of ecclesiastical counterpart to the League of Nations and, later, the U.N. Indeed, as this book shows, churchly pressure played a role in the birth of the U.N. itself.

Perhaps to the embarrassment of conservative Christians today, the ecumenical enterprise began its public career in largely evangelical soil, at the Edinburgh Missionary Conference of 1910. But its subsequent history was driven, not by a missionary passion to convert eternal souls, nor by theology or ideology, nor even by great leaders. It was advanced rather by committees, agreements and conferences. Its theology was designedly minimalist, for its underlying conviction was that the values of management and omnicompetent government were one with those of the Sermon on the Mount; the former was but the latter writ large and transposed into the public arena.

The ironical conclusion was that the age that was in full retreat from Christian orthodoxy and supernaturalism witnessed a paradoxical confidence that the Kingdom of God – established, of course, by human management skills – was just around the corner.

Excerpt from Preface: Pg. 10

Internationalism

In the early 20th century it became painfully apparent that the nationalistic and fiercely independent sentiments of the American people prevented any foreseeable reunification of their nation with Great Britain. At the same time, the British Empire drifted apart politically and transmuted gradually into a more or less loosely associated Commonwealth of Nations. The establishment of the League of Nations on 10 January 1920, one of the final acts of the Versailles Peace Conference, rekindled the hopes of internationalists everywhere that a relentless march towards global governance could be sustained. Yet shortly thereafter, those high aspirations were ruthlessly dashed to pieces once again by the refusal of the United States Senate to ratify the Peace Treaty and become a full member of the League.

Even prior to this devastating blow to the idea of a one-world state, many of the politicians, academicians, financiers and industrialists who had come to Paris in 1919, had seen the need to regain a sure footing on the shifting ground of international politics.

> We are at present working discreetly, but with all our might, to wrest this mysterious force called sovereignty out of the clutches of the local national states of our world. And all the time we are denying with our lips what we are doing with our hands, because to impugn the sovereignty of the local national states of the world is still a heresy for which a statesman or a publicist can be, perhaps not quite burned at the stakes, but certainly ostracized and discredited. Arnold J. Toynbee - In an address at the Fourth Annual Conference of the Institute for the Scientific Study of International Relations, Copenhagen, June, 1931 – Pg. 110 Ecumenical Quest for a World Federation

Excerpts from Book Review by Gary Gilley:

Ecumenical Quest for a World Federation is an excellent work which informs us of the past and gives us much to consider for the future. Erdmann writes of the era when World War II was approaching and a number of influential people gave thought to what could possibly abolish war and solve most of the world's social ills. Following the Great War, it was determined by many that only a "new world order" could accomplish such a feat. With the signing of the Treaty of Versailles many felt the seeds for the next world war were planted and, as the next twenty years demonstrated, they were correct.

Something had to be done about war and its lasting devastation. A new world order was urgently needed but standing in its way was the issue of nationalism. John Foster Dulles, the principal mover behind the new world order, believed the "solution [lay] in the abolition of the entire concept of national sovereignty and the unification of the world into a single nation. All boundary barriers are thus automatically leveled" (p. 115). Leading the charge in establishing such a world order would have to be Great Britain. The British Empire had the most "excellent and refined qualities of humankind" (p. 53), and "British imperialism and the spread of social welfare were fundamental to the continuous existence of the British way of life" (p. 53).

Later in review:

…The Federal Council of Churches was on board as became clear in their Social Creed of 1932. One leader stated, "We are coming to see that the kingdom of God in Christ's conception never means anything less than a righteous human society…He has come not alone to save people out of the world and fill them for a far-away heaven, but to make a heaven here. He has come not to patch up human society and make the world a little less intolerable for men, but to make all things new and create a new social order" (p. 208).

By downplaying doctrine (p. 418) and "applying the principles of socialism…the kingdom of God on earth would be set up according to the ecumenical ideal" (p. 419). The kingdom of God, having been stripped of all biblical and theological distinctives, now was virtually identical to the new world order and its political and social agenda.

Historian Bill Hughes tells us this:

"After World War One, an attempt was made to set up a one-world government, and the League of Nations was established. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge Sr. prevented the United States from joining the League of Nations. The Jesuits' plot to create a one world governing body from which they could control the world, was stopped only temporarily. This part of the Jesuits' plan had to wait another 27 years for a repeat performance, when the Second World War would result in the United Nations."

The History of the United Nations - Author: Professor Walter J. Veith, PhD

In 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt coined the term "United Nations," the name first used to describe the 26 nations who pledged their governments to fight the Axis powers during World War II. But the idea of global government has been around since a lot earlier than the 20th century. Stephen P. Duggan Sr., former Director of the Council on Foreign Relations, explains:

> "The idea of preserving unity among civilized men, of promoting universal allegiance to a common lawgiver and obedience to a common law, appealed powerfully to thoughtful men throughout the "Dark" and "Middle" Ages, and has continued to affect mankind to the present day."

The New Age Share International magazine says this:

But the day will dawn when the vision of the United Nations will save the world. And when the reality of the United Nations starts bearing fruit, then the breath of immortality will be a living reality on Earth.

Professor Walter J. Veith, PhD New Age UN Organizations says this:

Planetary Citizens and the Findhorn Foundation are just two of the organizations connected to the United Nations that teach blatant New Age, Earth worship, and Luciferian doctrine.

Keys wrote this in One Earth:

The New Age groups are focusing and entering a new stage—a world related stage. They are becoming mature enough to begin to shoulder some of the load of humanity's burden.[iii]

David Spangler, co-director and spokesperson for the Findhorn Foundation explains the organization's Luciferian views:

The true light of Lucifer cannot be seen through sorrow, through darkness, through rejection. The true light of this great being can only be recognized when one's own eyes can see with the light of the Christ, the light of the inner sun. Lucifer works within each of us to bring us to wholeness, and as we move into a New Age, which is the age of man's wholeness...

Lucifer prepares man in all ways for the experience of Christhood and the Christ prepares man for the experience of God...the light that reveals to us the path to the Christ comes from Lucifer. He is the light giver. He is aptly named the Morning Star because it is his light that heralds for man the dawn of a greater consciousness...He stands no longer as the tester or the tempter but as the great initiator, the one who hands the soul over to the Christ and from the Christ on into ever greater realms (emphasis added).[iv]

UNITED NATIONS:

THE OCCULT CHARACTER OF UNITED NATIONS

by Alan Morrison

Excerpt:

I have often spoken about the fact that the United Nations is an organization which has been widely infiltrated by occultists and propagators of the "New Spirituality" (New Ageism).

In the book "The Aquarian Conspiracy", by Marilyn Ferguson, a survey of New Agers showed that the leading influence on their spiritual "awakening" was Pierre Teilhard de Chardin.

The occultist and well-known "channeller", Dr. Robert Muller, who was an Assistant Secretary General at the United Nations until recently, wrote in one of his books:

> "Teilhard [de Chardin] had always viewed the United Nations as the progressive institutional embodiment of his philosophy"
> (Robert Muller, ed., The Desire to be Human: A Global Reconnaissance of Human Perspectives in an Age of Transformation, Miranana, 1983, p.304).

As the darling of the "New Spirituality", Teilhard de Chardin rigorously applied his monist, evolutionary philosophy to the world political situation, leading him to advocate a vision of some kind of one-world government.

In his book "The Future of Man", he wrote:

> "Although the form is not yet discernible, mankind tomorrow will awaken to a 'pan-organized' world".

The United Nations has long been one of the foremost world harbingers for the "New Spirituality" and the gathering "New World Order" based on ancient occult and freemasonic principles.

Seven years after the birth of the U.N., a book was published by the theosophist and founder of the Lucis Trust, Alice Bailey, claiming that,

> "Evidence of the growth of the human intellect along the needed receptive lines [for the preparation of the New Age] can be seen in the "planning" of various nations and in the efforts of the United Nations to formulate a world plan...
> From the very start of this un-foldment, three occult factors have governed the development of all these plans".
> [Alice B. Bailey, Discipleship in the New Age (Lucis Press, 1955), Vol.II, p.35.]

Although she did not spell out clearly the identity of these 'three occult factors', she did reveal to her students that,

> "Within the United Nations is the germ and seed of a great international and meditating, reflective group - a group of thinking and informed men and women in whose hands lies the destiny of humanity.
> This is largely under the control of many fourth ray disciples, if you could but realize it, and their point of meditative focus is the intuitional or buddhic plane - the plane upon which all hierarchical activity is today to be found".
> [Ibid., p.220.]

To this end, the Lucis Trust (formerly known as the Lucifer Trust), under the leadership of Foster and Alice Bailey, started a group called 'World Goodwill' - an official Non-Governmental Organization within the United Nations.

The stated aim of this group is "to cooperate in the world of preparation for the reappearance of the Christ" [One Earth, the magazine of the Findhorn Foundation, October/November 1986, Vol. 6, Issue 6, p.24.]

Readers should bear in mind that 'the reappearance of the Christ', as stated in Neo-Gnostic literature, is not to be confused with the biblical concept of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, but refers to the 'World Teacher' who is expected to lead humanity into a forthcoming Golden Age on earth.
But the esoteric work inside the U.N. does not stop with such recognized occult groupings.

Much of the impetus for this process was initiated through the officer-ship of two Secretary-Generals of the U.N., Dag Hammarskjöld (held office: 1953-1961) and U Thant (held office: 1961-1971) who succeeded him, and one Assistant Secretary-General, Dr. Robert Muller.

In a book written to celebrate the philosophy of Teilhard de Chardin (and edited by Robert Muller), it is revealed that,

> "Dag Hammarskjöld, the rational Nordic economist, had ended up as a mystic. He too held at the end of his life that spirituality was the ultimate key to our earthly fate in time and space".

[Robert Muller (ed.), The Desire to be Human: A Global Reconnaissance of Human Perspectives in an Age of Transformation (Miranana, 1983), p.304.]

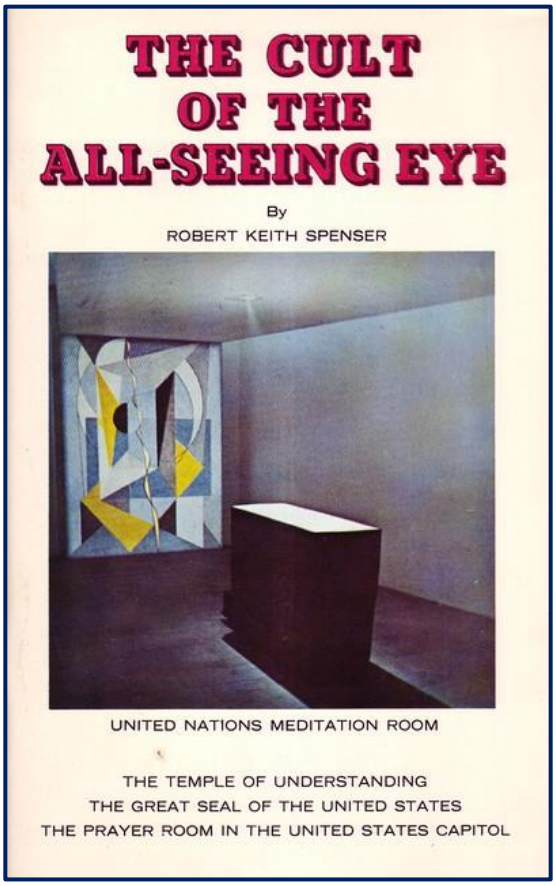

In case readers may be wondering what kind of 'spirituality' Dag Hammarskjöld advocated, a leaflet about the United Nations Meditation Room written under the direction of Mr. Hammarskjöld stated that the eerie lodestone altar within it, 'is dedicated to the God whom man worships under many names and in many forms'.

[Quoted in R.K. Spenser, The Cult of the All-Seeing Eye (Christian Book Club of America, 1962), p.9.]

"No one will enter the New World Order unless he or she will make a pledge to worship Lucifer. No one will enter the New Age unless he will take a Luciferian Initiation."
David Spangler, Director of Planetary Initiative, United Nations

The UN Meditation Room

"The ultramundane symbolism and atmosphere of the Meditation Room of the United Nations may bemuse the unwary and the lukewarm in faith; their delusion need not be shared by Christians or members of other faiths who do not accept ancient paganism clothed in modern dress. "Pagan" had at one time an antonym: milites Christi or "enrolled soldiers of Christ"— men and women who fought paganism with every iota of strength and faith and knowledge at their command. Milites Christi are needed now to combat the influence and supporters of this Temple of Abomination, with its crude, occult-evoking simulacra of Deity.

St. Paul said (Acts 17, verse 29): "If therefore we are the offspring of God, we ought not to imagine that the Divinity is like to gold or silver or stone, to an image graven by human art and thought." But Hammarskjold likened the light over the altar to the Sun's illumination and the altar to "the God whom man worships under many names and in many forms." Beelzebub or Buddha, Confucius or Christ — they are all one in the Meditation Room, a nameless god." Pg. 20 The Cult of the All Seeing Eye

Some of you may ask the question: How could our inclusion into this Luciferian organization have happened in a country where Christian morals and teachings seemed to have helped shape America's beginning?

I have previously referenced the Hegelian Dialectic – I feel it is necessary to again give explanation: Below are excerpts from an article that is helpful in understanding the process of change that has been taking place at almost all levels of our culture, and especially in "Christian" universities and churches, which is written about in this article by Paul Proctor - Dated 2003:

Hegelian Dialectic & the New World Order Excerpt:

For the benefit of those who have not yet heard of the Hegelian Dialectic, let me briefly run through it as taught by Authority Research Center president, Dean Gotcher. The Hegelian Dialectic or "Consensus Process" is a 200 year-old, three-step process of "thesis, antithesis and synthesis", developed in the late 1700's by a German named Georg William Friedreich Hegel that results in what we now know as "group-think". It is a system Dean calls "Praxis" that Socialists have used for centuries to seduce, seize and control mass populations without warfare. It is also in full operation here in the United States under such names as: "Outcome Based Education", "Goals 2000", "Sustainable Development", "School To Work", "DARE" and many more. It's all about embracing "tolerance, diversity and unity" for The New World Order. To put it in layman's terms, it's brainwashing.

Here's how it works: A group gathers, and has agreed beforehand that each in attendance will ultimately surrender his or her own personal position on any given issue to the will or "consensus" of the group after processing to consensus through dialog. In a Christian setting, the presupposition is that the group's will determines "the will of God". The group's "facilitator", whoever that may be, mediates between sides, be they "good and evil", "for and against", "republican and democrat", "liberal and conservative", etc., whatever the case may be, often instigating heated confrontations between the opposing sides for the purpose of suggesting compromise as the perfect solution to restore and maintain the peace and the relationships of everyone involved.

The resulting outcome or consensus is then re-introduced if necessary, at the next meeting for more "Praxis", more dialog and more compromise until another "consensus" is reached. Then the "process" repeats all over again...and again...and again until the facilitator's desired outcome is achieved. Over time, the convictions and concerns anyone may have had originally are processed away beyond recognition or relevance leaving one and all to accept the facilitator's pre-determined outcome as the consensus of the group. It's no longer a question of what is right or wrong, good or bad, lawful or unlawful, but rather HOW WE ALL FEEL ABOUT IT...no absolutes, no conscience, no convictions, no laws, no Constitution, no Bible and NO GOD!!!...only consensus....and a contrived consensus at that. That's the Hegelian Dialectic.

And this second excerpt:

*…It should therefore come as no surprise to anyone that at the UN's meeting in September called "The Millennium World Peace Summit of Religious and Spiritual Leaders" they:

1. All but banned evangelical Christians from attending.
2. Condemned Christianity from the podium as the first order of business.

3. Spent the rest of the time fighting among themselves for the best seats in the house.
4. Agreed to nothing. (So much for "World Peace" and the UN's PC gospel of tolerance, diversity and unity.)

Political Nightmare:

Also, now in the political realm we have even a greater problem: people who are promoting diversity, hypocritically refuse to accept our choice to be different as defined by scripture, even refusing verbal interchange unless we express total agreement with their chosen, wicked philosophical position.

> "The real rulers in Washington are invisible, and exercise power from behind the scenes."
> --Felix Frankfurter, Supreme Court Justice

In today's America, a discussion around politics can quickly develop into a heated exchange, and sometimes violence, or the threat of violence. Of course, we should also point out that many university students won't even consider a free, multiple-sided discussion to be a proper exercise. These sorts of student "intellectuals", who are narrow-minded, soft-skinned socialists, leftists, and Marxists are seeking protection of their intellectual space by requiring safe spaces in their educational setting, just like pre-programmed robots. But that pattern was prototyped a long time ago in our educational system by the outlawing of any discussion or instruction regarding Creationism.

> "These are the rules of big business. They have superseded the teachings of our parents and are reducible to a simple maxim: Get a monopoly; let Society work for you; and remember that the best of all business is politics, for a legislative grant, franchise, subsidy or tax exemption is worth more than a Kimberly or Comstock lode, since it does not require any labor, either mental or physical, for its exploitation."
> --Frederick C. Howe, in Confessions of a Monopolist (1906)

> "Today Americans would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order; tomorrow they will be grateful. This is especially true if they were told there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all peoples of the world will plead with world leaders to deliver them from this evil. The one thing every man fears is the unknown. When presented with this scenario, individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well-being granted to them by their world government."

> Unbeknownst to Kissinger, his speech was taped by a Swiss delegate to the meeting

"Today the path of total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by the Congress, the President, or the people. Outwardly we have a Constitutional government. We have operating within our government and political system, another body representing another form of government - a bureaucratic elite.

-- Senator William Jenner, 1954

"The Trilateral Commission is intended to be the vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests by seizing control of the political government of the United States. The Trilateral Commission represents a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power political, monetary, intellectual and ecclesiastical. What the Trilateral Commission intends is to create a worldwide economic power superior to the political governments of the nation states involved. As managers and creators of the system, they will rule the future."
-- U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater in his l964 book: With No Apologies.

"The Council on Foreign Relations is "the establishment." Not only does it have influence and power in key decision-making positions at the highest levels of government to apply pressure from above, but it also announces and uses individuals and groups to bring pressure from below, to justify the high level decisions for converting the U.S. from a sovereign Constitutional Republic into a servile member state of a one-world dictatorship."
-- Former Congressman John Rarick 1971

"The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the larger centers has owned the Government ever since the days of Andrew Jackson."
- A letter written by FDR to Colonel House, November 21st, l933

"Next the statesmen will invent cheap lies, putting the blame upon the nation that is attacked, and every man will be glad of those conscience-soothing falsities, and will diligently study them, and refuse to examine any refutations of them; and thus he will by and by convince himself that the war is just, and will thank God for the better sleep he enjoys after this process of grotesque self-deception."
-- Mark Twain, The Mysterious Stranger, 1916, Ch.9

"One-fourth of humanity must be eliminated from the social body. We are in charge of God's selection process for planet earth. He selects, we destroy. We are the riders of the pale horse, Death."
- Psychologist Barbara Marx Hubbard - member of Task Force Delta; a United States Army think tank

"It is easier to believe a lie that one has heard a thousand times than to believe a fact that no one has heard before."
- Unknown Source

"Revolutions are effected in two ways, by force and by fraud."
- Aristotle

"Beware the leader who bangs the drums of war in order to whip the citizenry into a patriotic fervor, for patriotism is indeed a double-edged sword. It both emboldens the blood, just as it narrows the mind. And when the drums of war have reached a fever pitch and the blood boils with hate and the mind has closed, the leader will have no need in seizing the rights of the citizenry. Rather, the citizenry, infused with fear and blinded by patriotism, will offer up all of their rights unto the leader and gladly so. How do I know? For this is what I have done. And I am Caesar."
-- Julius Caesar

Remember, in the end, we win! I will close with the last verse in the Bible: Revelation 22:21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
