Spiritual & Prophetical Discernment Series - Issue #189

Leon E. Good Nov. 3, 2026

Discernment: Good vs Evil – Wisconsin Christian News – Rob Pue – Nov.2, 2026 – Complete Article

I sat across the desk from a man who had served in Christian ministry for more than fifty years. As I listened, what I learned about the dark spirituality that's present and growing here in Wisconsin was shocking. He told of seeing firsthand a huge pentagram — the symbol associated with satanic worship — carved in a hay field in southern Wisconsin. The site was far off the beaten track on the outskirts of a seemingly small-town Christian community. But it was apparent that occult rituals were secretly taking place here on a regular basis.

He also shared with me about the time he was in a small aircraft, flying over another remote part of Wisconsin, seeing a similar satanic symbol far out in the woods. Nearby were rows of LP gas tanks which powered a huge furnace. "What were the purpose of those things?" I asked innocently. His reply: "seemingly to destroy the evidence of animal — and possibly even human — sacrifices."

He even told of the sacrifice of a newborn baby in the northwoods, near the border of Upper Michigan. An informant had come forward with specific details of the crime, all of which checked out with the state and local police — but no evidence of a body could be found and therefore, no charges could be filed. The infant had allegedly been ritualistically killed and offered up to Satan, then the body incinerated.

If stories like these sound preposterous, it doesn't take much investigation to confirm them — and to find even more examples of the occult, paganism, witchcraft, "new age" and demonic influence right here in my home state…and all across our nation. On the shores of Lake Michigan, the city of Manitowoc was named "The Devil's Doorway" by ancient Indians. Spiritually discerning people have confirmed this area remains a hotbed of demonic influence today. A little southwest of there, Waupun, Wisconsin boasted the nation's first State Prison Chaplain system led by a Wiccan, and the first public Wiccan church. The chaplain, Jamyi Witch, was fired in 2013 after allegations of sexual assault and providing drugs to inmates.

The town of Black River Falls has its own dark history. In the late 1890s, the area was plagued by a diphtheria epidemic, a lingering economic depression, and then the residents began to go collectively insane. A documentary, entitled "Wisconsin Death Trip" was released in 2001, which details, through re-creations, old photographs and vintage newspaper clippings, the evil that took place there. To this day, the Black River Falls area remains one of the most challenging areas of Wisconsin in which to do Christian ministry.

In December 2006, in Barneveld, midway between Madison and Dodgeville, Selena Fox, a Wiccan priestess won a ten-year battle to have their Wiccan symbol added to the list of emblems allowed in national cemeteries and on government-issued headstones of fallen soldiers. According to the Associated Press story, the agreement was reached between the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and Wiccans who sued to include the pentagram on veteran grave markers. The settlement called for the symbol to be placed on grave markers within 14 days for the eleven families nationwide who had pending requests with the VA.

Fox is also the founder of the "Circle Sanctuary" near Barneveld, which hosts such activities as "Pagan Spirit Gatherings," "Sacred Fire Circles," Divination, Honoring of the Dead as well as more secretive events known only to Circle Sanctuary members. Here, they worship and serve the environment, the creation, rather than the Creator, just as Paul warned the Romans about.

Need more examples? At Christmas time, a nativity scene on the roof of Green Bay's City Hall building shares the spotlight with the Wiccan pentacle. And now, we have stores springing up everywhere, advertising occult supplies for your every need. Healing arts and divinations, Ouija Boards, Crystals, Tarot Cards, Private Room Sessions, Reiki, Fortune telling, Quantum Touch, Channeled Drumming and Guided Meditations. The list goes on. Take a drive through nearly any city or town in our state and you'll find practitioners of astrology, psychic readings, fortune telling, witchcraft and magick. This isn't just in Wisconsin. The occult is big business nationwide now.

Besides the obvious fact that these things are based on false, pagan religions, drawing ignorant, lost souls to their destruction, God's Word, the Bible, specifically forbids such practices. Deuteronomy 18 warns, "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer, or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. For all who do these things are an abomination to the Lord..." Read this list of abominations again, and then consider what our culture promotes today. These things are everywhere, and are accepted and embraced more and more. Occult-oriented businesses can be found in even the smallest of towns, along with worship of false gods and incredible fascination with such things as sorcery, "shape shifting," and vampirism.

Even those who consider themselves Christians dabble in the forbidden. Christians on Facebook post their daily horoscopes, ignorant of the fact that astrology is an ancient, heathen practice, which the Bible warns against repeatedly: (Jeremiah 10:2; 27:9-10; Daniel 2:1-4; 4:7; and 5:7-9). The ancient Israelites were warned not to follow the false religions of the heathen, those who worshiped the sun, moon and stars. Yet today, we do it just for fun. Even Christians, because no one ever told them it was contrary to God's Word.

Our adversary is extremely deceitful and dabbling in things like this opens a door to demonic delusion that will affect all areas of one's life. Even those who simply play around with such "innocent" things as a daily horoscope can see evidence of this. Chances are very high that those who dabble in astrology and paganism will find that their lives are characterized by disorder and confusion. They live lives marked by disappointment and poor choices, because (even if they claim it's all just in fun) they're placing their trust and faith in demonic deception, as they're led away from God.

Many practitioners of these occult practices are fraudulent, taking advantage of the poor, desperate and ignorant. Others, through "spirit guides," (demons) are able to perform false miracles, seemingly able to call up the dead and allow loved ones to speak to their family members who are deceased. With the advent of Artificial Intelligence, the deception of speaking with a deceased loved one is becoming commonplace now. AI even offers spiritual advice and guidance from an "artificial Jesus." These are all counterfeit "miracles" and the result of Satan and his demons masquerading as familiar spirits, which God's Word repeatedly warns against.

Some of today's most popular television programs deal with mediums and spirit guides calling up the dead or investigating hauntings. One absurd program on satellite radio even purports to "channel" one's pets. Callers to the program ask the psychic host how their pet is feeling, what their pet's concerns are, and even how a deceased pet is doing in the afterlife. The host can tell the caller specific information about their pet — (even if the pet is dead) — simply by talking to the human owner (and asking some probing questions). This show is extremely popular. And also extremely ridiculous, yet many buy into it and tune in daily.

Let's go to 2 Timothy 3: "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Friends, the occult is everywhere today, and it's nothing to play around with. In the 1990s, Pokeman cards were all the rage among young children, and Pokeman is making a big comeback today. Kids are mesmerized and they want to collect and trade them, each card featuring a different character. Discerning Christians raised red flags about these cards when they first came out, and they were never allowed in our home when our kids were young. I still remember hearing the story of Chief Shoefoot from the Yanomamo tribe of the Amazon forest. Chief Shoefoot was a former witch doctor who had become a Christian. He visited the United States with Wisconsin missionary Don Shire. Shoefoot was shown the Pokeman cards, and without the ability to read English, was able to call each Pokeman character by name — because, he said, he knew these characters. You see, these Pokeman characters are demons which Shoefoot consulted and consorted with daily as a witch doctor. He was well familiar with them.

Satan worms his way into homes, into hearts, masquerading as an angel of light. Things that seem harmless, even "spiritual," "good," or "beautiful" are often insidious and evil. There's a lot of new so-called "Christian" music on the market today that I believe is straight from the enemy, luring our young people away from the truth of God's Word. Just because something uses the label "Christian" does not make it so. On the contrary, in my experience, that's all the more reason to investigate, see if it is truly God-honoring and lines up with Scripture. We must be discerning over the things we allow into our homes, our hearts and minds. 1 John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world."

We live in a deceitful world. The Scripture from 2nd Timothy which I quoted above should be studied and taken to heart. In America today, most of us are idle and burdened down with sins. Most of us are led along by a variety of lusts, always learning but never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. What wisdom in these words to Timothy! And what a warning for all of us today.

Spiritual warfare is absolutely real, and it's a subject we must study, as we guard our hearts and minds. Because today, even our churches are compromised with things like the "interfaith" movement, "social justice," sexual perversion endorsed and affirmed by the pastors, while rainbow flags obliterate the crosses or fly from the steeples of our once-sound houses of worship all year 'round.

While I can see the ground that the pagan, "new age," Wiccan and demonic realm has conquered here in Wisconsin, these things are an insidious cancer on our entire nation. If you love your family, friends and neighbors, learn to discern, put on the whole armor of God and in Jesus' name, rescue those who are blind and deceived. This is nothing to play around with. A lot of things are called "spiritual" these days, but not all "spirituality" is of God, even if it's presented as something "progressive" or "beautiful." Satan masquerades as an angel of light, you know. Jude 1:4, "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." The "new age" is nothing new. It's as old as Satan himself.

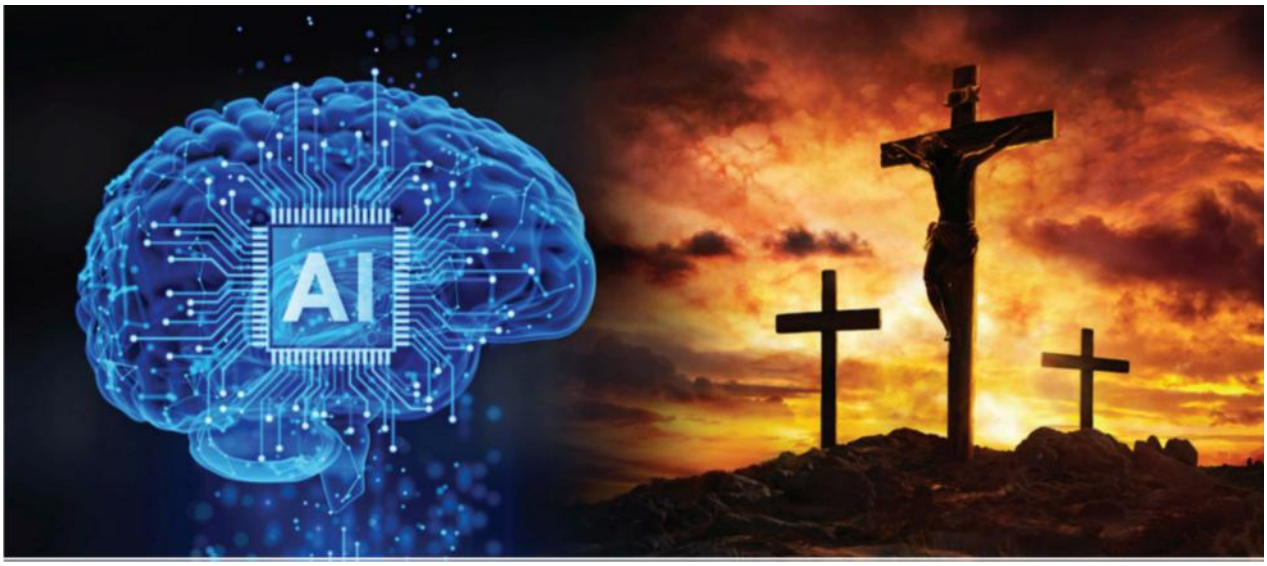

==========

Who Needs God in an Age of Artificial Intelligence - By Jan Markell - Nov.-Dec. Newsletter – Complete Article

When I first began hearing about artificial intelligence (AI) years ago, I don't think anyone could perceive its dangers. Clearly, it had end-time significance. Surely this would assist the Antichrist in his "buying and selling" scheme.

But God gives intelligence. How does mankind create it? And the honest question is, would it be a blessing or a Frankenstein? How about both?

There Have Been Ominous Warnings

A decade ago, I read the title to some articles that were stunning. One was, "Ex-Google Executive Anthony Levandowski is Founding a Church Where People Worship an Artificial Intelligence God."

Another story was headlined, "Why Humans Will Happily Follow an A.I. Robot Messiah."

Microsoft founder Bill Gates says, "AI will either be the greatest equalizer ever invented, or the worst source of injustice. It could accelerate medical discoveries, help doctors diagnose, provide farmers in poorer countries with better agricultural advice, make government services easier to navigate, and give teachers tools to personalize education."

Then he backtracks and says he doesn't think the world is ready for it.

AI experts have made further warnings. I began assembling comments a decade ago. Here are just a few:

- The human era could be ending and machines will take over.
- He who develops AI rules the world. We won't be able to control it.
- We are summoning up demons. Be very careful.

• We are playing with fire.

• AI could become smarter than humans and could become a god.

• AI could be the worst event in the history of civilization as machines could win. The

Warning That Went Around the World

In September of this year, a former employee of Open AI and Anthropic stated, "I resigned from Anthropic today. Neither company is acting responsibly. They are gambling with our lives. Don't underestimate the power of this technology. These will soon be superhuman systems that can hack anything, revolutionize any field, and acquire real power."

He concludes, "The people building AI believe that it could kill us all by the end of the decade. This is not a marketing stunt. No other human activity poses this level of danger."

Justifying a Global Government

Here is how one man could control all buying and selling. Could it play a role in the "image of the beast"? Why not? And as critics are warning now, AI could simultaneously create the crisis used to justify global government—and provide the technological machinery necessary to operate it.

Global crises are just that—they are global. The threat is global; therefore the solution must also be global. The end-time scenario requires a one-world leader. The technology is here. Maybe this new religion isn't the promise of paradise after all. Some promoting AI are evangelists and some of them offer a new Promised Land it would seem. But some of the very movers and shakers of the artificial intelligence industry are sounding serious warnings. If we're summoning up demons as one suggests, this is a type of Frankenstein in the wrong hands.

Who Needs God in an Age of Artificial Intelligence?

Young people are particularly drawn to artificial intelligence. Some will tell you that they can get an answer more quickly from Google or Alexa than they can from God. Who needs God in an age of artificial intelligence? Who needs an invisible God? And Google or Alexa may tell you what you want to hear in Technicolor, 3-D, and instantaneously!

But, as I have pondered here the last few years, I agree with those who are saying this is the second super sign of Christ's return. The first was the dry bones coming back to life (Ezekiel 37); the second is this 21st century technology that will be the key to the Antichrist kingdom

AI Is Fearfully Fraudulent

AI cannot speak anything into existence or give anyone eternal life. It cannot give anyone comfort, guidance, or offer anyone peace or hope. It cannot still the wind or calm the sea. It is trying to be like God but will fall far short! We are fearfully and wonderfully made. AI is fearfully fraudulent.

I know President Trump has renamed this "Super Intelligence" or SI, but I believe only God posseses that, and He distributes it in small portions to mankind.

God Cannot be Superseded by Computer Chips

Events of the Tribulation are casting a shadow today. He is coming soon! God sits in the Heavens and laughs at these people (Psalm 2). He will allow them a short season of notoriety and then will crush the evil doers at His Second Coming. The biblical vision of the future does not conclude with humanity being exterminated by its machines. In fact, it culminates in Jesus ruling and reigning. God created mankind in His image, not to be superseded by computer chips.

==========

ROME & CONSERVATIVE AMERICAN POLITICS – O Timothy Magazine, Nov. Issue – David Cloud – Complete Article

The Roman Catholic Church has a major role in the ecumenical movement, in Contemporary Christian Music, and in America's political conservative movement.

In light of Bible prophecy, this is not surprising and it is not insignificant.

The Roman Catholic Church has been a major aspect of the false Christianity through the centuries. It is the precursor to Mystery Babylon of Revelation 17. Though the complete fulfillment will not occur until the rise of the Antichrist in the Day of the Lord, Rome has the major characteristics of Revelation 17: full of names of blasphemy, arrayed in purple and scarlet, decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication, drunken with the blood of the saints, sitting on seven mountains, and covering peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

The Roman Catholic Church is totally false Christianity.

The Roman Catholic Church has a false gospel of sacraments and works, beginning with baptism. The following is from the Second Vatican Council, Rome's most recent authoritative doctrinal statement:

> "By the sacrament of Baptism, whenever it is properly conferred in the way the Lord determined and received with the proper dispositions of soul, man becomes truly incorporated into the crucified and glorified Christ and is reborn to a sharing of the divine life" (Vatican Council II, Decree on Ecumenism, chap. 3, II, 22, p. 427). "Thus by Baptism men are grafted into the paschal mystery of Christ. ... They receive the spirit of adoption as sons" (Vatican Council II, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Chap. 1, I, 5,6, pp. 23-24). "For it is the liturgy through which, especially in the divine sacrifice of the Eucharist [the mass], 'the work of our redemption is accomplished,' and it is through the liturgy, especially, that the faithful are enabled to express in their lives and manifest to others the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church" (Vatican Council II, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Introduction, para. 2). "All children of the Church should nevertheless remember that their exalted condition results, not from their own merits, but from the grace of Christ. If they fail to respond in thought, word and deed to that grace, not only shall they not be saved, but they shall be the more severely judged" (Vatican Council II, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, chap. 2, 14, p. 337). "In that body the life of Christ is communicated to those who believe and who, through the sacraments, are united in a hidden and real way to Christ in his passion and glorification" (Vatican Council II, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Chap. 1, 7, p. 327).

The Roman Catholic Church has a false Christ, the Christ of the mass or eucharist. The Catholic mass is a heretical abomination whereby the blessed wafer, the host, allegedly becomes the actual body and blood of Jesus Christ by the instrumentality of the priestly ritual. The host is kept in a tabernacle or monstrance and worshiped as Christ. The mass was called "a re-sacrifice of Christ" by the Second Vatican Council.

> "For in it Christ perpetuates in an unbloody manner the sacrifice offered on the cross, offering himself to the Father for the world's salvation through the ministry of priests" (Vatican Council II, The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Instruction on the Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery, Introduction, C 1, 2).

The Roman Catholic Church has a false Mary. She is the sinless Mother of God, perpetual virgin, bodily assumed into heaven as Queen over All, Co redemptress, Mediatrix, and Advocate (See Vatican Council II, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, chap. 8, I, 52, 53; II, 56, 59, 62, pp. 378, 381-383).

Scripture warns of the development of apostasy through the church age with an explosion of false Christianity at the end of the age, which is exactly where we are and exactly what we see. Scripture forbids God's redeemed people to join hands with false Christianity for any purpose, not for evangelism, not for anti-abortion crusades, not for politics, etc. In a major passage describing and warning of the apostasy (2 Timothy 3-4), the apostle Paul said,

> "Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away" (2 Ti. 3:5).

If we encounter professing Christians who don't hold a sound gospel, don't have biblical evidence of the new birth, don't hold to infallible Scripture, add tradition to the same authority as Scripture, etc., God's Word says to turn away from them. See also Acts 20:28-31; Romans 16:17; 1 Corinthians 15:33; 2 Corinthians 6:14-19; Philippians 3:17-19; Ephesians 5:8-11; Colossians 2:8, 18; 1 Timothy 4:1-3; 2 Timothy 2:16-21; 3:3-4; 2 Peter 2; Jude 1:3-23; Revelation 2:2, 14-15.

Broad tent evangelical ministries such as Turning Point USA do some good, but in the end they are building the one-world church and are bridges to every heresy that exists in our day.

Christ has already assigned the business of His redeemed people for this age, and it is the Great Commission and the New Testament church (Matthew 28:18-20; 1 Timothy 3:15).

We appreciate any good thing in ministries such as Turning Point (and the old Moral Majority), but we are going to obey God's Word and mark and avoid error (Romans 16:17) and give our full attention to proclaiming and obeying the whole counsel of God. The Lord Jesus Christ has given our marching orders to the end of the age. We refuse to join hands with any remnant of the apostasy, even if it is labeled "evangelical," for a political agenda or any other purpose.

Many fundamental Baptists are getting weaker in their thinking on biblical separation through association with evangelical ministries and engagement in conservative ecumenical politics.

For extensive evidence of what is happening in evangelicalism, see EVANGELICALS AND THE GREAT APOSTASY at the Books section of www.wayoflife.org. This course consists of a textbook, video classes, PowerPoints, review questions, and tests. See especially the PowerPoint segment "Evangelicalism a Bridge to Dangerous Waters." The PowerPoints are available for free downloads at PowerPoints section of the www.wayoflife.org.

Prominent Roman Catholic Political Conservatives

Raymond Arroyo (Fox News commentator, The World Over Live on EWTN - Eternal Word Television Network)

Bret Baier (Fox News commentator and chief political anchor; author of To Rescue the American Spirit: Teddy Roosevelt and the Birth of a Superpower)

Maria Bartiromo (Fox News commentator; author of The Cost: Trump, China, and American Renewal)

Jeremy Beer (co-editor of American Conservatism: An Encyclopedia) William Bennett (hosted Morning in America, a syndicated radio show in the morning drive time slot, Fox News commentator; founder of Empower America; fellow of the Claremont Institute; author of The Death of Outrage: Bill Clinton and the Assault on American Ideals)

Dan Bongino (conservative commentator; author of Follow the Money: The Shocking Deep State Connections of the Anti-Trump Cabal) L. Brent Bozell Jr. (1926-1997) (associated with William F. Buckley Jr in the National Review; co authored McCarthy and His Enemies)

Patrick Buchanan (consultant to Presidents Nixon, Ford and Reagan; co-founder of the American Conservative magazine; Fox News contributor; founder of The American Cause)

James Burnam (1905-1987) (contributor to the National Review; author of The Managerial Revolution, Suicide of the West: An Essay on the Meaning and Destiny of Liberalism, and The War We Are in: The Last Decade and the Next)

Patrick Deneen (author of Why Liberalism Failed and Regime Change: Towards a Postliberal Future)

Edwin Feulner (1941-2025) (co-founder and president of the Heritage Foundation; named one of the 100 most influential conservatives in America)

Bruce Frohnen (co-editor of American Conservatism: An Encyclopedia; writes for The Imaginative Conservative)

Lisa Graas (writes for Live Action and the David Horowitz Freedom Center; author of The Sober Catholic Way)

Greg Gutfeld (grew up Catholic and served as an altar boy; currently claims to be an agnostic; Fox News personality, host of the comedy talk show Gutfeld!, cohost of The Five, author of The Bible of Unspeakable Truths)

Shawn Hannity (Fox News commentator; author of Live Free or Die)

James Hitchcock (1938-2025) (historian and columnist; contributor to EWTN; author of History of the Catholic Church)

Megyn Kelly (former Fox News commentator; founder of The Megyn Kelly Show, MK Media, and AM Update; author of Settle for More)

John Kennedy (Senator; author of How to Test Negative for Stupid)

Alan Keyes (hosted The Alan Keyes Show: America's Wake-Up Call; ambassador to the United Nations Economic and Social Council; President of Citizens Against Government Waste)

Erika Kirk (CEO of Turning Point USA) Russell Kirk (1918-1994) (author of The Conservative Mind, 1953; major contributor to traditional conservatism)

William Kovacs (author of Devolution of Power: Rolling Back the Federal State to Preserve the Republic)

Neil McCaffrey (founder of the Conservative Book Club)

Frank Meyer (1909-1972) (founder of "fusionism," which unites libertarianism and traditionalism into "a synthesis posited as the definition of modern American conservatism"; author of In Defense of Freedom: A Conservative Credo and Conservative Mainstream).

Peggy Noonan (political commentator; author of When Character Was King)

Bill O'Reilly (former Fox News commentator; founder of No Spin News podcast and television program; author of Culture Warrior)

Jeanine Pirro (judge; conservative commentator; author of Liars, Leakers, and Liberals: The Case Against the Anti-Trump Conspiracy)

Marco Rubio (U.S. Senator; Secretary of State under Donald Trump; author of An American Son: A Memoir; American Dreams: Restoring Economic Opportunity for Everyone, and Decades of Decadence: How Our Spoiled Elites Blew America's Inheritance of Liberty, Security, and Prosperity)

Phyllis Schlafly (1924-2016) (founder of the Eagle Forum; helped the Republican Party become pro-life in the 1980s; committee member of the Catholic Campaign for America; co-founder of the Cardinal Mindszenty Society to warn Catholics of communism's dangers)

Joseph Sobran (1946-2010) (syndicated columnist; wrote for the National Review and The Wanderer; author of Hustler: The Clinton Legacy)

J.D. Vance (U.S. Vice President; author of Hillbilly Elegy) Richard Viguerie (executive secretary for Young Americans for Freedom; founder of the Conservative Digest; author of The New Right: We're Ready to Lead, The Establishment vs. the People: Is a New Populist Revolt on the Way?, America's Right Turn: How Conservatives Used New and Alternative Media to Take Power, Conservatives Betrayed: How George W. Bush and Other Big Government Republicans Hijacked the Conservative Cause Takeover: The 100-Year War for the Soul of the GOP and How Conservatives Can Finally Win It).

Matt Walsh (founder of the Matt Walsh Blog; author of The Unholy Trinity: Blocking the Left's Assault on Life, Marriage, and Gender, Church of Cowards: A Wake-Up Call to Complacent Christians, Johnny the Walrus, and the documentary What Is a Woman? One Man's Journey to Answer the Question of a Generation)

Jesse Waters (author of Get It Together: Tales from the Liberal Fringe, 2024) Paul Weyrich (head of the Free Congress Foundation)

Francis Graham Wilson (author of The Case for Conservatism, 1951)

William F. Buckley Jr. (1925-2008), founder of Young Americans for Freedom, the National Review, and the Firing Line television show, was one of the most prominent figures in American conservatism, and he was a staunch Roman Catholic. This is emphasized in Sam Tanenhaus's biography Buckley: The Life and the Revolution That Changed America:

> "'To get to the root of Bill Buckley,' a friend later said, 'you've got to understand that he's a Catholic aristocrat of the Spanish persuasion.') p. 25) "… in his religious memoir, Nearer, My God, Buckley lovingly recalled the half year he spent at St. John's Beaumont, the rituals hallowed by memory--arising at sunrise for chapel, kneeling with eighty others each morning for Latin Mass and at bedtime for vespers, the evening prayers, also spoken in Latin … It was then that 'I knew absolutely--about this there simply was no doubt--that I had had a deep and permanent involvement in Catholic Christianity.' It began with 'the closeness I felt, every morning, to the mystical things that were taking place at the altar,' the ceremony of the eucharist, wine and wafter consecrated into the blood and body of Christ" (p. 28)

My faith rests not in what I am, or shall be, or feel, or know, but in what Christ is, in what he has done, and in what he is doing for me. Charles Spurgeon

==========